It is the further intent and purpose of this Agreement to assure sound and mutually beneficial working and economic relations between the parties hereto, to provide an orderly and peaceful means of resolving any misunderstandings or differences which may arise, and to set forth herein agreements between the parties concerning rates of pay, hours of work and other conditions of employment.

The UCUA and the Union agree that the working environment shall be characterized by mutual respect for the common dignity to which all individuals are entitled.

ARTICLE 1

RECOGNITION

The UCUA recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive representative for the collective negotiations unit set forth in the PERC Certification Docket No. RO-2011-038 which consists of all regularly employed nonsupervisory enforcement officers of the Union County Utilities Authority, but excluding managerial executives, confidential employees, and supervisors within the meaning of the Act; professional employees, craft employees, police, casual employees, and all others employed by the Union County Utilities Authority.

ARTICLE 2

UNION SECURITY

Section 1. The Employer agrees to payroll deduction of union dues and initiation fees, if any, for bargaining unit employees when authorized in writing to do so by each employee. Such authorization shall be terminated automatically when an employee is removed from the payroll of the Authority. Where an employee takes a leave of absence without pay for one full calendar month or more, such deductions shall be suspended and the Authority shall be under no obligation to collect funds during such absence. Upon the employees return to employment, normal deductions shall resume.

Section 2. The amount of periodic dues will be certified by the President of the Local Union to the Employer in writing, and the amount so certified will be uniform for all members of the Union. Any changes in the amount of Union dues or Fair Share fees shall be provided by the Union to the Employer in writing, at least thirty (30) days in advance.

Section 3. Bargaining unit employees who do not become members of the Union shall, through payroll deduction, be assessed a fair share representation fee in lieu of dues, for services rendered by the Union. Such representation fees shall be transmitted to the Union in the same manner and with the same frequency as normal membership dues deductions.

Section 4. The Fair Share representation Fee, (Agency Shop Fee) in lieu of dues, shall be in an amount equivalent to the regular membership dues charged by the majority representative to its own members, less the cost of benefits financed through the dues which are available to, or benefit only, Union members, but in no event shall such Fee exceed eighty-five percent (85%) of the regular membership dues.

Section 5. Any public employee who pays a Representation Fee in lieu of dues shall have the right to demand and receive from the majority representative, under proceeding established and maintained by the Union, which shall be in accordance with appropriate statutory provisions and Court decisions, a return of any part of that fee paid by him which represents the employee's additional pro rata share of expenditures by the majority representative that is either in aid of activities or causes of a partisan, political or ideological nature only incidentally related to the terms and conditions of employment or applied toward the cost of any other benefits available only to members of the Union. The Union assumes responsibility to insure full compliance with the requirements laid down by the U.S. Supreme Court with respect to the Constitutional Rights of a representation fee payer. Representation Fee payers may object to the amount of the fee in accordance with the Union's Agency Fee Payer Objection Plan, as approved by the U.S. Department of Labor.

Section 6. The dues and representation fees shall be remitted to the designated financial officer of the Union, accompanied by a list of employees for whom the deductions have been made, not later than the fifteenth (15th) day of the month following the month in which the deductions were made. Deductions not withheld from an employee due to an error shall be deducted from the employee's next pay period.

Section 7. The Union shall indemnify, defend and save the Authority harmless against any and all claims, demands, suits, or other forms of liability that may arise out of or by reason of the action taken or not taken by the Authority for the purposes of complying with the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE 3

UNION REPRESENTATION

Section 1. A duly authorized Representative of the Union, after notice to the Executive Director or Supervisor in charge, shall be admitted to the premises of the Employer during reasonable business hours, for the purpose of ascertaining compliance with this Agreement and assisting in the resolution of grievances or disputes. Such visits shall not be permitted to interfere with, hamper or obstruct normal operations and shall conform with all applicable UCUA policies regarding visitors.

Section 2. The Employer agrees to recognize one steward for the bargaining unit. All stewards shall remain at work unless, after advance approval by their immediate supervisor, they are required to attend to a grievance or other contractual matter. Approval shall not be unreasonably denied and shall be consistent with the following guidelines:

- (a) Time spent for steward business shall not exceed 1 hour unless approved by the Executive Director or his designee.
- (b) Time shall be scheduled so as not to interfere with operational requirements.

Section 3. A written list of two stewards and other officers and/or representatives of the Union shall be furnished to the Executive Director. Any changes to said list shall also be made in writing to the Executive Director.

ARTICLE 4

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Section 1. The Union recognizes that there are certain functions, responsibilities and management rights, exclusively reserved to the Employer. All of the rights, power, prerogatives and authority possessed by the Employer prior to the signing of this Agreement are retained exclusively by the Employer subject only to such limitations as specifically provided in this Agreement.

Section 2. Except as modified, altered or amended by agreement, the Employer shall not be limited in the exercise of its statutory management functions. The Employer reserves and retains unto itself, without limitations, all powers, right, authority, duties and responsibilities conferred and vested in it by the laws and Constitution of the State of New Jersey and the Constitution of the United States of America.

- (h) Any actions contemplated by the Authority under paragraphs (e), (f) and (g) which may adversely impact the bargaining unit shall be discussed with the Union prior to implementation insofar as practical.

ARTICLE 5

NO STRIKES OR LOCKOUTS

ARTICLE 8

It shall be the responsibility of the employee to maintain his/her current address with the Authority.
